THE MUSIC OF OUR LIVES

Music is incorporated in some fashion within every life that walks the halls of Stoneham High School. Pop hits and rock bliss play on students' radios and in their heads. Music is used as a release from the pressures of school and helps avoid the onset of insanity often accompanied by a pop quiz or term paper. Other than that, music would presumably play no other role in most students' lives. Some may even go as far as to consider it a superficial part of student life. Music, however, plays a much more important role in the lives of students. Moments that change and shape our lives can often be remembered by simply hearing a song. As we grow, our songs change and so do our memories.

The music we choose at fourteen may not be the same as that we choose at thirty-five, but no music will ever fade. It is an everlasting memory for days past and the distinction of individuality for days present. And thus, as we begin to depart from our early lives, we bring with us memories of who we were to help us create the person we will become. The music of our lives incorporates our past and present while forever building the album of our future.

SENIOR COLLAGE

"Step by step I come closer to reaching the top....
So high the climb can't turn back,
Must keep climbing up to the clouds."

The Climb
No Doubt

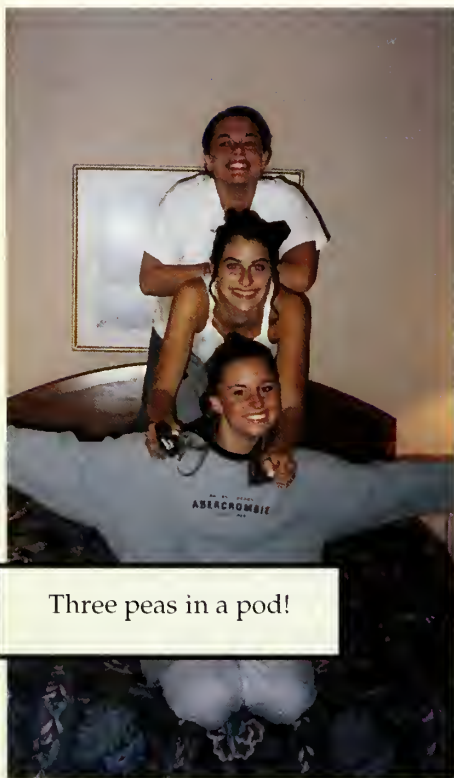

Ciara and Deanna are content just hanging out on the steps...

Nice view, guys!

April, Jill, and Erica show off their tans.

Three peas in a pod!

Mat Marquis, quite the ladies' man!

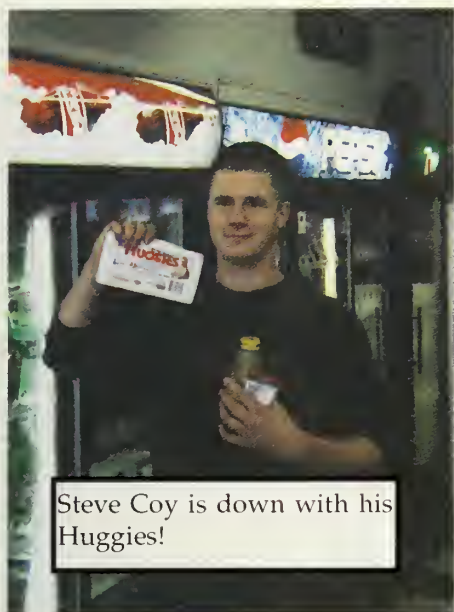

What's wrong, Julia, bad hair day????

SENIOR COLLAGE

Steve Coy is down with his Huggies!

The soccer team enjoys the usual - Pizza and Pasquale!

The dangerous results of playing with makeup.

Audra, Tania, Marissa, and Jen bond over a nice can of Coke!

Danielle gets into character for the senior class play, "Attack of the Finger-Eating Olives."

This episode of Sesame Street has been brought to you by the color YELLOW!

SENIOR COLLAGE

The Spartan faithful gear up for another rousing encounter with Reading.

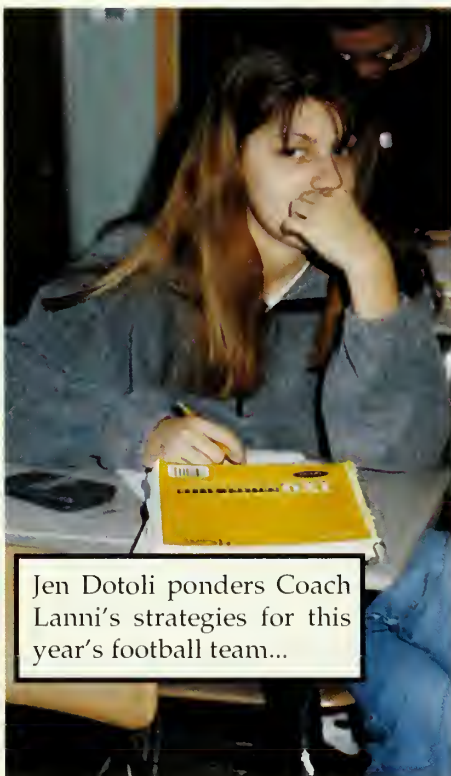

The senior field hockey players practice their "flirt with the golf team" drill.

Domenic dreams about scoring a game-winning goal in the tournament.

Curtis makes a new friend....

Jen Dotoli ponders Coach Lanni's strategies for this year's football team...

Joe Jodrey can't wait to bust out of math and "Eat Mo' Pie."

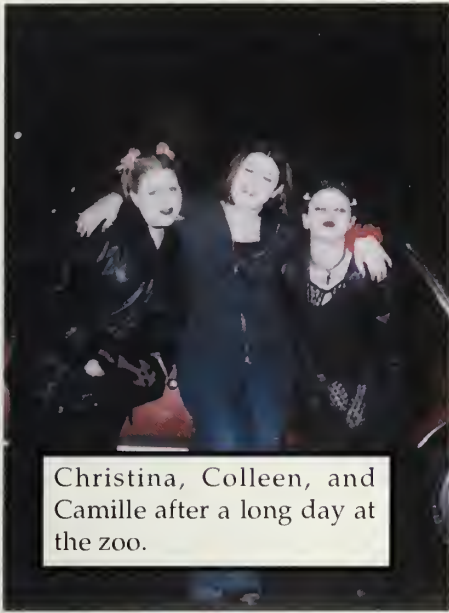

What is Sally Reagan thinking about? Definitely not math!

SENIOR COLLAGE

Christina, Colleen, and Camille after a long day at the zoo.

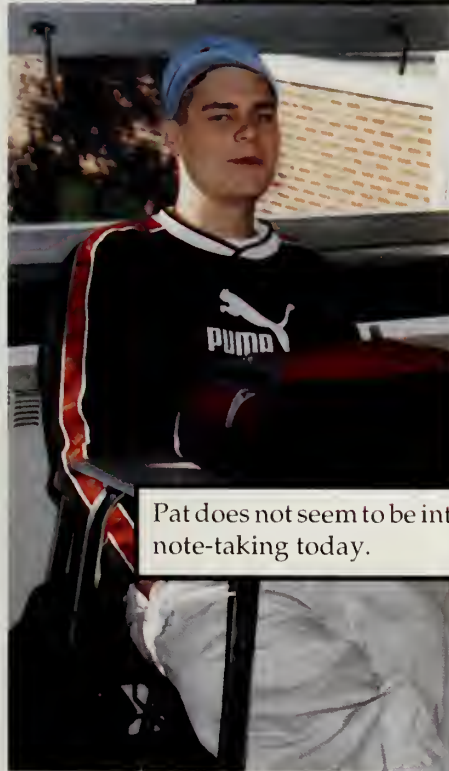

Erin and Jen smile for the camera while Cynthia is doing her best to hold back Lauren from Jen's date.

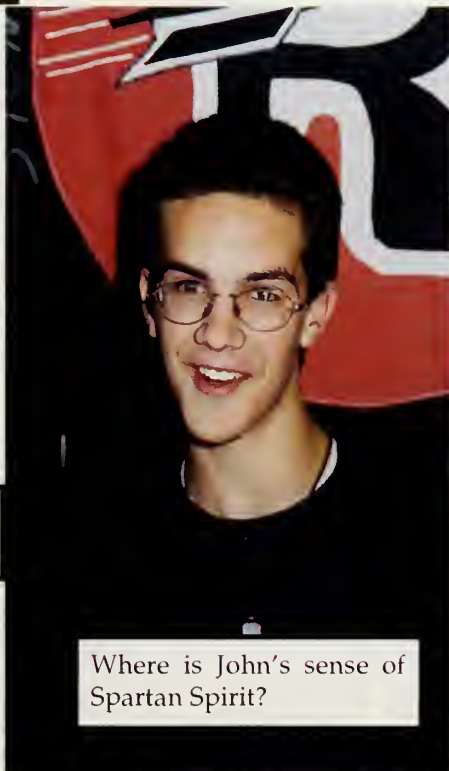

Chris gets comfortable with Kenny and Mike.

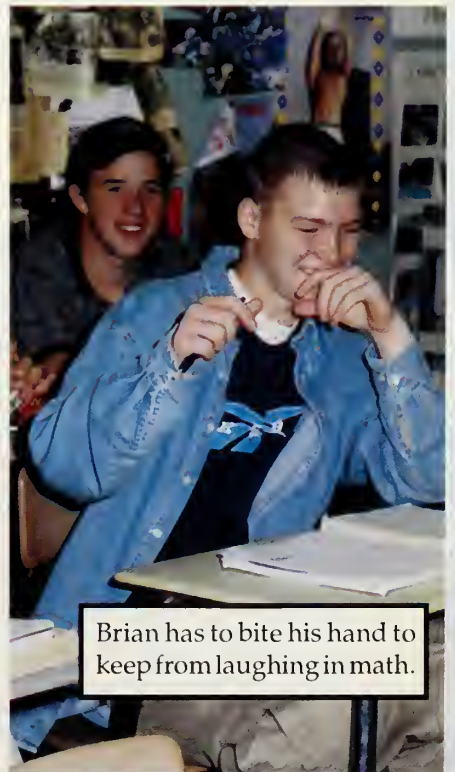

Four pretty smiles from Kelly, Lauren, Julie, and Danielle!

Pat does not seem to be into note-taking today.

Where is John's sense of Spartan Spirit?

Brian has to bite his hand to keep from laughing in math.

Mr. Charles Freeman

As he walks the halls of Stoneham High School greeting students with his trade-mark "Hi, Goofy", Mr. Charles Freeman is doing a job he thoroughly enjoys. While the job of Head Custodian is not always a pleasant one, Mr. Freeman maintains a positive attitude and tackles each responsibility with patience and humor. Working with and around kids has kept him feeling young. He thinks of S.H.S. as his own "fountain of youth."

During his leisure time, Mr. Freeman enjoys deep-sea fishing as well as vacations to Maine. His ultimate vacation spot, however, is the Epcot Center in Florida. In keeping with his youthful outlook on life, he recently pierced his ear and is undertaking a new challenge of learning how to use a personal computer.

All of the time and extra effort Mr. Freeman has put into our school has made it a better place for everyone and it is for this reason that we dedicate our yearbook to our buddy, Charlie Freeman.

SCHOOL DAYS

"For what it's worth, it was worth all the while.
I hope you had the time of your life."

Good Riddance
Green Day

Where did all the boys go?

The work just keeps getting easier.

Can we stop smiling now?

Now that Chris Plant is a senior, he has no trouble getting the girls.

The bell rang, but who cares?
It's senior year!

SCHOOL DAYS

Danny DeAmicis is checking up on the Red Sox while Rob Duffy looks on.

Laura Fardy, Jen Duchene, Kerry Brennan, and Christina Tammaro form the chemistry chat group.

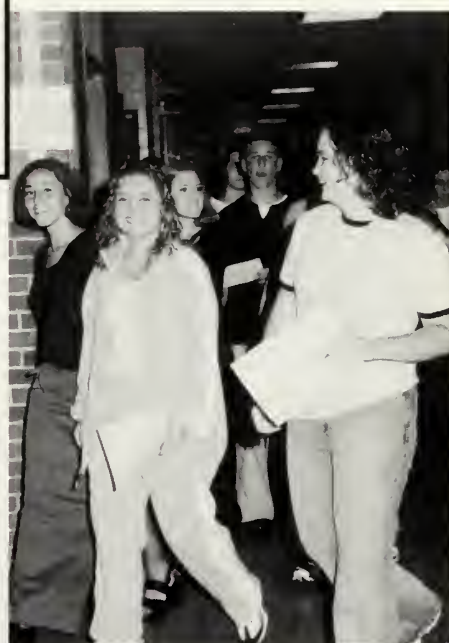

After fixing their hair and makeup, Jeff Hamm, Christina Goodrich, Mahima Subramanian, and Lin Gan could now smile for the camera.

This friendly gang is inviting you to run the gauntlet, initiating the start of senior year.

These huggy seniors show their support by coming to Town Day.

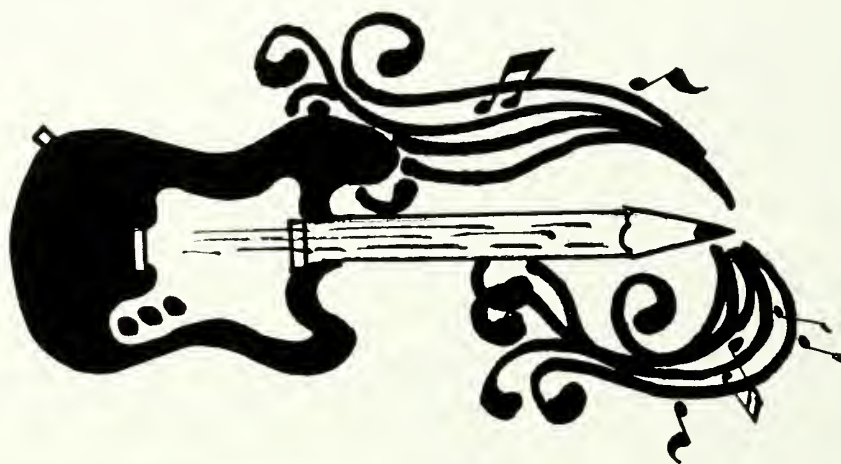

A laughing Kara Leahy joins Jessie Stockbridge and April Harrington on their walk to class.

DANCES

"The music's banging and the light's down low,
just one more dance and we're good to go."

Genie In A Bottle
Christina Aguilera

We'll always remember
Mike Hsia!

Kelly and Jennye put their softball gear away to get dolled up for the Junior prom.

Kerry and Erin are ready to bust a move!

Look! It's the Three Amigos!

Sequins all around!

DANCES

Kelly and Christina are all smiles before the prom.

Peter, T.J., and Ryan, bustin' a groove!

Deborah and Tricia, obviously enjoying the fun.

Rob and John -- too hyper?

It's ladies' night!

And making a special guest appearance this evening, Mr. Peanut!

SEMI-FORMAL

• November 7, 1997: silver stars, blue balloons

• Extravagant dresses, sharp suits, and brilliant smiles

Clockwise: Danielle Festino and Chris Mullins, but where's Marcos?

Social butterflies Deborah Berkman and Tricia Chan take a moment to pose.

Nicole Cirace and Adam Fielding in a close embrace.

Pictures before the semi can be such a bore, but not with this group.

John Chetwynd grabs the attention of Pamela Richardson and Amanda Norden.

Q: What is your favorite memory of the semi?

A: Kelly and I switched dates and to this day she's still going out with Eddie!

Julie Aresco

A: My date's aunt managed to stab me in the chest with my boutonniere! I bled for hours.

John Gardner

A: I was so surprised when my limo arrived and the driver was my ex-boyfriend!

Allyson Sawyer

SEMI-FORMAL

"TAKE MY BREATH AWAY"

John Bardis, Pat Dickie, Mike Colotti, Brian Kelley, John Macone & Eric Jamieson during the painful picture process.

Darcy Bennett, Tiffany Richards, Lauren Surette, Jacqueline Crosby, Jackie Gatta and Danielle Izzicupo huddle.

Erin McManus, Michelle Davison, Danielle Festino, Kelly Hodgdon, & Leigh Warren do their best Spice Girls impression.

Peter Brennan and John Tucci leave the ladies wanting more.

"Hey Mike Coughlin, what are you looking at?" ponders John Curtis.

Q: What song on the radio reminds you of the semi?

A: My best memory was dancing with a pretty girl to "I Still Believe" by Mariah Carey.

Ryan Seabury

A: "The Time of My Life" from Dirty Dancing reminds me of when I had the time of my life.

Michelle Davison

A: I remember sliding out on the floor when "The Humpty Dance" song came on. Peter Spelman

JUNIOR PROM

• April 9, 1999

Danversport
Yacht Club

• Limos,
red carpets,
flowergowns
and tuxes -- the memories begin from this moment

Clockwise: "Girls just want to have fun!"

Kelly Hodgdon,
Danielle Izzicupo, and Melissa Gregorio smile at the thought of the night they are about to enjoy.

Lisa Rosselli and Mahima Subramanian glamourously await their chariot.

Although she is surrounded by these good
looking guys, Jackie Gatta's eyes are still wandering.

One of these things just doesn't belong. Can you guess who?

Q: WHAT DID YOUR PROM PREPARATION ENTAIL?

A: It took me half an hour to shower, shave, deodorize, and
put on my tux.

Frank Cho

A: It only took me 15
minutes to get ready! I applied
my usual makeup and fixed my hair.

Amanda
Bergquist

A: Trimmed
my facial hair,
put on my two-
tone shoes,
grabbed my mojo and jumped into the limo.

Chris Mullins

JUNIOR PROM

"FROM THIS MOMENT"

A few good men.

"Chris Ciano, are you jealous?", says Matt McDonald.

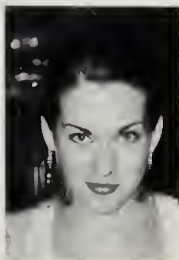

This group was all smiles tonight.

Lin Gan making a cameo appearance with Usher, a.k.a. Nips.

The Fearsome Four and Chris glam up for the wonderful excitement at the prom!

Q: WHAT WAS YOUR AFTER-PROM PLAN?

A: After going to the McDonald's Drive-Thru in our huge limo, we partied in Boston.

Jenn Reilly

A: After the prom, we cruised in the limo then partied all night at Paul's house.

Ed Silva

A: We drove to Mobil-on-the-Run in our limo then high-tailed it to Revere Beach.

Jacqueline Crosby

SCHOOL DANCES

The Spartan Chorale does its best not to shatter the windows.

Tricia Chan and Marissa Colella get ready for a sleepover... in English class!

The seniors end their four-year reign as Carnival Ball champs dancing to Mr. Roboto.

Guys and Dolls

Gangsters, dancers, and mission workers form the cast of Guys and Dolls. The play focuses on the love lives of two infamous mobsters, Nathan Detroit (Matt McDonald) and Sky Masterson ( Marcos Valles ) and their rollercoaster love lives with Hot Box Girl Miss Adelaide (Melissa Loperfido) and pious Sarah Brown (Johanna Buckley). Lots of romance, trouble and humorous confusion ensues incorporating the talents of actresses Amanda Fitzgerald, Jen Duchene, Amanda Norden, Anne McDonnell, Katelyn Dondero, Jackie Feke and Julie DeStefano and actors Chris Mullins, Dan Christie, Dave Ruff, Steve Launie, Dan Braganca, Chaci Ciano, James Belschner and Louis Frederick in supporting roles. Class of 2000 crew members include Danielle Festino, Nicole Cirace, Laura Fardy, Deidre Quigley, Jennie Nocella, Lauren Paicopolos, Marianne Laiosa, Kim Pullo, Sally Reagan, Mat Marquis and Lisa Rosselli. The musical was directed by advisors Beth Zieff and Ben Youngman.

“LUCK BE A LADY

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR LEFT:

Sky Masterson (Marcos Valles), secure knowing that "all dolls are the same" (until he meets Sarah), strolls to meet fellow gangsters.

Benny Southstreet (Steve Launie) looks for a horse that "can do" and finds a "horse right here, his name is Paul Revere."

Missionaries Jen Duchene, Amanda Norden and Amanda Fitzgerald marching and singing their praise.

Chris Mullins relaxes before he goes onstage as notorious gangster Big Jule.

The Guys and Dolls crew includes directors, stage managers, costume supervisors, make-up supervisors, lights managers, props supervisors, choreographers and publicity advisors.

Nathan Detroit (Matt McDonald) grooves to "The Oldest Established" referring to the "oldest established floating crap game in New York."

Miss Adelaide (Melissa Loperfido) laments about her fourteen year engagement to Nathan with her Hot Box girls Liz Breen, Katelyn Dondero and Elizabeth Francis.

Sarah Brown (Johanna Buckley) preaches to a captive audience with "Follow The Fold."

Nicely-Nicely (Dave Ruff) enjoys a banana before bringing down the house with his rousing rendition of "Sit Down You're Rocking The Boat."

Halloween

On October 29, 1999, Stoneham High School was transformed into a mixture of little children, music groups, television and movie stars, as well as historical and literary characters. Each grade was adorned in their best renditions of their themes. The seniors reached back to their earliest wardrobes to outfit themselves as little children, while the juniors searched the airwaves to be the best musical groups they could be.

At the same time, sophomores found themselves in front of the tv or the big screen to find the best character with whom they could identify and dress up as. And, as always, the freshmen perused through the history and literature books to become a character to fulfill their History/English learning requirements. But when the numbers were tallied, seniors proved to be victorious for their school spirit.

"THE MONSTER MASH"

Mr. Romano thinks it's time for his class to meditate.

Where's Pokey?

Eva Bartos grew horns overnight!

Are Christina Tammaro and Kerry Brennan Pippi Longstocking wannabes?

This will probably be the only time you'll find Jimmy Buffet, Shania Twain and Madonna all in the same room.

Who is that scary dude with the mask on? Could it be Mr. Mulvihill?

Marianne Laiosa and her twin.

Strange fashion hits Stoneham High.

Pat Palermo, nice legs!
Amanda Norden,
your bears are fabulous!

Peter Spelman and Bobby Fields are still little kids at heart.

FATHER OF THE BRIDE

The auditorium becomes dark, the chattering audience hushes, lights come up on the Banks household. The quaint home appears peaceful; the family - close knit. That is until the storm broke...

When Annie Banks (Danielle Festino) breaks the news that she has just become engaged, chaos ensues. Her mother (Amanda Fitzgerald) and brothers (Dan Braganca and Rob Millwee) are bursting with excitement.

Whereas her father, George (Marcos Valles) is bursting to knock out her fiancé, the charming Brian McKenzie (Matt McDonald).

George Banks starts to lose his grip on sanity as the problems begin to arise. From the increasing guest list, to the wedding coordinator Franc's (Chris Mullins) zany antics, the craziness never ends.

Chaos doesn't only occur on stage, but behind the scenes as well. Stage managers Dee Quigley and Laura Fardy try to keep everything in order backstage.

From their quick set changes to the perfect light cues with Marianne Laiosa at the light board, a stage manager's work is never complete. Directed by Beth Zieff and Nicole Cirace, Father of the Bride was another great Drama Club production.

"GOING TO THE CHAPEL"

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR LEFT:

Annie (Danielle Festino) and Brian (Matt McDonald) have a tiff about their wedding plans. He wants a small intimate affair; she dreams of a large, lavish ceremony.

Mrs. Banks and Annie share a mother-daughter moment after Annie has a fight with her fiancé.

Make-up call! Get ready to get greased up! Yan Yan Yui and Amanda Norden prepare to work their magic.

Tommy (Rob Milwee) and Ben Banks (Dan Braganca) look puzzled - a state of mind for them both throughout the wedding ordeal.

The Seniors involved in the Senior Class play After two months of diligent work and practice, Father of the Bride went off without a hitch and it possessed special moments that the Drama Club will never forget.

Bridget (Anne McDonnell) sheds a few tears over a dusty coffee table while florist Liza Blackman plans the floral arrangements.

Britney (Lisa Rosselli) concentrates as she tries to beat Tommy (Rob Milwee) in a card game.

Franc (Chris Mullins) flashes a debonair smile. With his untraceable accent, he brought lots of laughs to the performance.

Annie (Danielle Festino) walks down the aisle as the Banks family finally experiences a happy ending.

George Banks (Marcos Valles) loses touch with reality when he starts adding up the wedding costs.

WINTER CONCERT

The 1999 Winter Concert was a culmination of the hard work, talent and dedication of the four music groups at the high school. The first group to perform was the Chamber Chorus under the direction of Robert Lague. The group sang four selections, including A Girl's Garden, Tutu Maramba (A Brazilian Lullaby), A Beatle Medley and Big Spender from "Sweet Charity."

The Spartan Band, led by Concert Mistress Deirdre Quigley and director Edmund Grammar, played next with five pieces. The Washington Post and Overture in Bb, were performed along with the holiday classics Greensleeves and The Holly and The Ivy in which Deidre had a solo.

The powerful March to the Scaffold from Symphony Fantastique, Op. 4 was the final piece.

The Spartan Chorus performed five pieces. The Nightingale was the opening song, followed by Keep Your Lamps, a spiritual. Songs from Les Miserables, with freshman accompanist Grace Kim, were performed and Jennifer Duchene had a solo in The Look of Love.

The group closed with Sleigh Ride. Ending the program, the Jazz Band played four pieces.

The talented group, which shared many solos, played Spooky, Nica's Dream, Mr. P.C. and the show-stopping Breaking the Girl by the Red Hot Chili Peppers.

"SLEIGH RIDE"

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR LEFT:
The Chamber Chorus,
dressed in their concert finery, sang several audience-pleasing numbers.

Guadalupe Paz keeps her eye on the conductor while Kristen Lentz and Anne
Marie Borchelt check out
the audience.

Laura Fardy, Amanda
Fitzgerald, Amanda
Norden, Michelle Lunetta
and Yan Yan Yii concentrate on the Les Miserables
medley.

Jazz band member, Brian
Mugford, is laid back during this John Coltrane number.

The Band, including senior members Jen Duchene and Ciara Clark, work on the first public presentation of this year's performance piece.

Joe Mazur and Brian Beltram jam new power
chords for everyone to hear.

Colleen Moriarty gets familiar with her clarinet during Greensleeves.

Mike Gagerges and Matt
McDonald impress the audience with the sounds of the sax.

Jen Duchene sings her heart out during her solo The Look of Love.

Amanda Fitzgerald tickles
the xylophone without missing a beat.

N.H.S. Induction

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Every member of the Stoneham High School chapter of the National Honor Society has demonstrated excellence in all of these four areas. Each year, on the first Monday in February, new junior members are recognized in front of family, friends, and the SHS faculty for their many laudable achievements with a candlelight induction ceremony. With the addition of many dedicated and conscientious members every year, the honorable and prestigious tradition of the National Honor Society will continue for years to come.

SECOND ROW: Kathleen Doherty, Victoria Mata, Lianne Hong, Shaunna Stanton, Adele DeAngelis, Jill Angelosanto, Elizabeth Breen, Elizabeth Francis, Anne Marie Borchelt, Lauren Izzicupo.
THIRD ROW: Christopher Cummings, David Tammaro, Jeremy Jamieson, Michael Porcaro, Anthony Caracciolo, Mr. James Carino, Brian Molloy, Xavier Garcia, Jesse Fulton, Daniel Blanchard, Daniel Finocchiaro, Bryan Last.

"Everybody Has To Learn Sometime"

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR LEFT:

Amanda Bergquist, NHS Vice-President, lights the candle of Leadership.

Jeremy Jamieson watches closely as Larissa Farnam carefully pins him.

Ms. Norelli dazzles the audience with her rendition of Huck Finn, complete with voices, during the Honor Address.

NHS Secretary Lauren Kelleher delivers a wonderful speech on Character.

Deborah Berkman, NHS President, confidently speaks to the inductees about Scholarship.

Mr. James Carino happily accepts his honorary membership into the National Honor Society from Danielle Festino.

Mrs. Margaret Puffer, NHS Advisor, offers encouraging words to these top students.

Mike Porcaro is all smiles as he is inducted into the NHS.

Larissa Farnam carefully passes on the flame.

The newest members of Stoneham High School's National Honor Society.

DramaFest

This year's entry into the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild's Drama Festival competition did exceptionally well for

Stoneham. I Never Saw Another Butterfly, written by Celeste Raspanti, tells the story of Raja Englanderova (senior Danielle Festino), a Jewish girl who must witness the horrors of the ghettos in WWII.

She deals with the terror of Terezin with the help of an old teacher (senior Matthew McDonald), a love interest (senior Marcos Valles), and with her family.

The play advanced beyond the preliminaries, where seniors Danielle

Festino, Matthew

McDonald, and

Marcos Valles

were given All-Star Awards for acting. A spectacular job was done by the crew,

led by Stage Manager, Dee

Quigley, in the execution of the set. Under the meticulous direction of Ms. Beth Zieff, the production proved to be a success.

The cast and crew would like to thank Ms. Zieff for her efforts and hard work, as well as for the delicious

Matzah-ball soup she cooked for us!

Good luck to next year's cast and crew!

“I Never Saw Another
Butterfly”

The cast: (Seated) Christina Kenney, Dan Braganca. (Standing) Anne McDonnell, Amanda Fitzgerald, Matt McDonald, Marcos Valles, Danielle Festino, Tina Gucciardi, Liz Breen.

Jacob (Matt McDonald) tells Raja that she must find a reason to survive each day.

Raja (Danielle Festino), the lone survivor, announces, "My name is Raja. I am a Jew. I'm not alone and I'm not afraid."

Honza (Marcos Valles) is a 12-year-old boy coping with the horrors of the Holocaust.

The crew:

Carnival Ball 2000

Each year, crowds filter through the doors of the high school auditorium to experience the magic of Carnival Ball. With this year's theme of "The Origins," mistresses of ceremony, Amanda Bergquist, Amanda Norden, and Jennifer Palladino, took the audience on a wild adventure from Carnival Ball's start in 1929 all the way through to the show we see today. This year was extra special because of our honored guests. Representative Kings and Queens from the past seven decades of Carnival Ball attended the extravaganza.

The audience and royal court, presided over by Queen Leanne Carlson and King Robert Duffy, were entertained by many different talents, from singing and dancing to the class acts, and of course the faculty's spoof, "The Where's Carino Project." The class of 2000 took control and added to their list one more outstanding performance, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire," complete with a final dance to Mr. Roboto. Stoneham High's long-lasting tradition once again left the audience in complete awe and craving more.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

Heart, soul, and passion. These are merely a few of the words that describe the playing of the 1999 Field Hockey Team. Unfortunately, our efforts and determination cannot be seen in our deceiving record of 1 - 11 - 5.

Unlike past years, the season's team proved to be inseparable both on and off the field. Summer camps, pasta parties, and sleepovers are only a few of the activities that created a family-like atmosphere amongst us.

We want to wish the best of luck to future captains and future teams. On this team we have created memories and friendships that will last a lifetime, and that both of us will cherish always. We will miss you guys!

CAPTAIN'S WORDS

The golf team, a group of icon status, rose to the occasion this year. Starting off with an agonizing 1-4 record in the first half of the season, we thought it was over. But we fought back for a 4-5 League record and a 6-5 overall. Continuing on to the Middlesex League Championship we had an unpredictable 3rd and 7th place finish. Barely making the state tournament, we fired scores at Thompson Country Club to secure a jubilant 5th place slot, just missing qualifying for the next round by one shot. We persevered through it all and had a successful season. I was proud to captain such a classy team senior year. We all wish future teams good luck and Godspeed.

CAPTAIN'S WORDS

We had a successful season this year. Our record was 9 and 9 and we had numerous competitive matches. We will never forget our win against Masconomet that secured a spot for us in the North Section State Tournament against Leominster. Even though we lost against Arlington Catholic which ended our season, we knew that we had played our hardest. We worked together as a team and we improved as a team. Our hard work, dedication, and love for the game helped us win games and create memories that we'll cherish for the rest of our lives.

Captain Lauren Surette

CAPTAIN'S WORDS

Cross Country is a sport that takes a lot of dedication, and the SHS girls' cross country team has shown, year after year, its commitment and love for running. This year, we finished with a record of 4 - 5, but every member of the team worked to improve as individuals and to have a strong personal and group season. We are friends both at practice and out of school, so parting with the team is a difficult thing to do, but we will always remember the great times we had as SHS cross country runners.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Fillback, Michael Snyder, Ryan McCormack, Jeff Brunini, Rob Duffy, Matthew Pecoraro, Luke Peng, Mike Jefferson, Ryan Seabury, Chris Cummings, David Tammaro, and Tim Judge.

Captain Rob Duffy

CAPTAIN'S WORDS

Although our team had its ups and downs we had another extremely successful season. In the last couple of years we have had to rebuild with what we had and what we could get. Our veteran senior runners included Mike Jefferson, Rob Duffy, John Gardner, and Ryan Seabury. We also appreciated new comer Luke Peng, who consistently improved every time he raced. Luke stepped it up to be the fifth runner on the boy's varsity team, and for his first experience, he did a great job. Some other key factors on our boys varsity team were junior Chris Cummings and Dave Tammaro, who both really excelled this year for our team. We also had the pleasure of taking a talented young freshman, named Tim Judge, under our wing. Tim improved greatly throughout the season and ran varsity by its close. Some other young athletes that we had the pleasure of training with are sophomores Jeff Brunini, Matt Pecoraro, and Mike Snyder, as well as freshman Ryan McCormack. "Determination and consistency are the keys to success."

Captains Tiffany Richards and Kelly Yates.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

Unless you actually become a cheerleader, you do not understand the hard work and dedication needed to have a successful team. This year, we had eight seniors, one junior, five sophomores, and three freshmen. In November, we performed in an exhibition at Wakefield High School. Our routine went so well that we got invited to a competition. Unfortunately, we were unable to attend due to several injuries on the team. Nevertheless, it was a great experience to be captains this year. We are proud of those who were dedicated to the team and put all of their effort into our season. We wish all of the seniors good luck.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

The first things that come to mind when talking about our team are: endless hours of practice, playing on the beach, random juggling sessions anywhere imaginable, playing until we couldn't even see anymore, and a burning desire to win. Thanks to great coaches and teammates who did whatever it took to win, we ended up with a record-breaking season of 13-3-2. We'd like to thank the faculty, all the die-hard fans (Senior class especially!), and our phenomenal managers Lauren and Kelly. We'd like to congratulate the other fall teams on great seasons and wish the best of luck to next year's team.

Captains: Cynthia Cirignano, Leanne Carlson, Jennye Nolan, and April Harrington - The Athletic Aphrodites of Girls Soccer.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

Determination, dedication, and a love for the game are three things that made this season successful. We were the team that continuously came back, when no one thought we could, and ended up making the tournament. Even though we lost our first tournament game against Fontbonne, we refused to go without a "fight," losing 3-2 in sudden death.

The friendships that we've gained this season, as well as the past four years, will last a lifetime. Memories like toilet papering Jen's house, stealing pumpkins, pasta parties, Jennye's 18th birthday, and our last time out together at Pescione's have made our '99 season unforgettable. We wish next year's team the best of luck, so "Let's go, girls!"

"ruff" "ruff"

April Harrington says "Attack! Attack!"

Cynthia Cirignano shows that it's all in the sweatband.

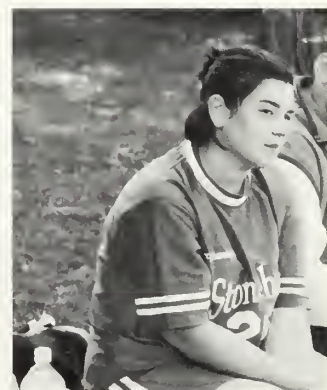

Jessica Picariello dashes for the ball.

Quit "walking like an Egyptian" and go after the ball, Marielle! Leanne Carlson confuses the enemy with her amazing anti-gravity hairspray. Casey Prior says, "Everybody get open!" Caitlin Herlihy's philosophy is: communication and eye contact are essential for a healthy relationship with your soccer ball.

Jen Palladino reflects on the progress of the game.

Good save, Hilary!

Jennye Nolan gets the inside edge on her opponent.

FOOTBALL

CAPTAINS' WORDS

The team will not forget the memorable season even though it wasn't the best. We were a bunch of athletes brought together to play a great game called football. Even though most of us were not able to play Pop Warner football, we worked hard and put everything we had into the season. Every week we came back to practice and never gave up even when injuries hit our team. Some memories throughout the season were going to Prince Pizza to eat the night before a game. Also, putting a live turkey on Coach's lawn the night before the Turkey Day game. These are the memories of the senior football season.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"As this year's Stoneham High School Winter Track Team entered this winter season, many people felt we would not perform as well as past teams. Captains Rob Duffy, Earl Hersam and Mike Jefferson knew this would be a tough season. Every senior member of the team played a key factor in leadership. The seniors pushed the younger members of the team to try their hardest so they could achieve their goals. Not only did the seniors step up in leadership, but so did many others on the team. The junior class played a tremendous role in scoring many of our meet points. They are a class of superior talent, and we believe they will follow this year's team's footsteps.

We are very grateful to our coaching staff. Coach Powers, Coach Riley, and Coach Hardy all played a tremendous part in our success. Without their discipline, training techniques, and great knowledge, we would never have achieved what we accomplished this season.

We were the first Stoneham High School Track Team to win a Middlesex League Championship. We accomplished this through hard work, great coaching, and excellent team spirit. We are extremely proud to have been not only captains but also a part of the 1999-2000 boys Stoneham High School Winter Track Team."

Captains Rob Duffy, Earl Hersom, and Mike Jefferson with Coaches Powers, Riley and Hardy.

"We are buff" say John Macone, Mike Lee, and Jon Yeshulas.

Fred Drago reaches out to pass the baton to Mike Jefferson.

Captains Jackie Gatta, Julie Aresco, Julie Fowler, and Jacqueline Crosby.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"The Stoneham Girl's Track Team successfully finished our winter season with a winning record of 6-3-0. Our four captains and eight additional seniors led the team through experience and example. We all worked cooperatively as a team and our effort, athletic talent, and determination accounted for our wonderful season. Mr. Rocher along with Ben Pease and Mrs. Dilisio have been great inspirations to the team. Throughout the season and the past four years, Mr. Rocher has been a very supportive and helpful coach to us all. We will never forget the great times we shared like singing out of tune to our "pump-up tape," going to Bertucci's on a regular basis, and attending pasta parties. We will miss you all so much next year. Good luck girls! We love you all!"

"I think I can.....I think I can..." chants Michelle Davison.

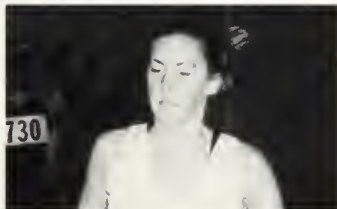

Lauren Mosher and Caitlyn Herlihy wait for the gun to begin their race.

"Run, Erin! Run!"

Coach Robert Carr with Captain Chris Serino.

CAPTAIN'S WORDS

"The 1999-2000 hockey season ran the gamut from victory and happiness to disappointment and sadness. Our ending record was 7-9-4, only two games off a tournament bound season. However, because of an unfortunate incident during the season, we were banned from any post-season tournament play. We will never forget this situation and the rest of the highlights of the year such as our come-from-behind victory over Belmont. The seniors would like to thank all the underclassmen on the team for making the season a memorable one for us that will never be forgotten."

Pat Palermo is determined to win this face-off.

SECOND ROW:

Liana Lee, Christine Burns,
Vanessa Lee, Jessica Figelski,
Patricia Pino, Alexis Golini.

Captains Alexis Golini and Liana Lee with Coaches Christofi and McNeil.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"Although we ended the season with a record of 1-5, we are so proud of all of you. Our team was small, which was very discouraging at times. But throughout it all, everyone worked hard and competed to their best ability. Thank you Miss Chris and AnnMarie and good luck to the team in the upcoming seasons."

Juniors Jessica Figelski and Christine Burns can't wait until they get to be captains.

Attitudes... what attitudes?

Jenna Kelly proves herself as a great new recruit for the team.

Liana Lee: "I believe I can fly, spread my wings and touch the sky."

Vanessa Lee... "Be all that you can be!"

The key to good gymnastics is hard work, dedication, and funky pants.

Kira Wall wants to start the team cheer, "Toothpaste, Toothpaste..."

BOYS' BASKETBALL

SECOND Row: Coach Killilea, Anthony DiRe, Steve Aprile, Brian Molloy, John Sabbagh, Anthony Caracciolo, Billy Campbell, Kevin O'Brien, David Corbett

Captains James Previte and Ed Silva.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"We may have lost 19 of our 20 games; however, that was the only bad aspect of this season. We were a very unified team, though the two captains were the only seniors. Going out to Prince Pizza or to a teammate's house the night before a game was a regular occurrence. Our unity was the force that allowed us to persevere and keep playing our hearts out through all of the adversity we faced. We had a great time this season and wish all of our teammates good luck in the upcoming season."

Stoneham, on three!

Ed Silva in a triple threat position.

Anthony DiRe boxes out the opponent.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

FRONT ROW: Nicole Marek, April Harrington, Jennye Nolan, Stephanie Celata, Hilary Puglia.

SECOND ROW: Coach Kevin Phelan, Elyse DeLucia, Sara Smith, Rachel Staub, Cristen Termine, Sheena Sweeney, Danielle Fortenbacher.

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"We had a great season, despite our 1-19 record. We worked hard and more importantly, had a good time. We will never forget the memories of our trips to Prince Pizza and the night we toilet-papered Coach's house. We will never forget running triple suicides either. Coach Phelan never gave up on us. We wish next year's team good luck and we will remember this season forever. Where my dogs at, ruff ruff."

Captains April Harrington, Jennye Nolan and Stephanie Celata with Coach Phelan.

Stephanie carefully follows the ball, ready to make her move.

April pauses while her teammates set themselves up for the play.

The ball seems to be just out of Danielle's reach.

Captains Felecia Cerrato and Darcy Bennett

CAPTAINS' WORDS

"With a brand new coach and a relatively young team, this year's winter cheerleading squad had to overcome many obstacles to achieve success. However, because of hard work, dedication, and hours of practice, the girls developed into a spirited and competitive team. Despite our inexperience, we were able to perform well in our first competition. We held many preseason practices and attended a clinic to reach our goal of going to competition. We appreciate all of the support we received from our spectators, as well as from the teams that we cheered for. Each girl contributed to our success, and we will miss you all! We will never forget our halftime show, toilet-papering, sleepovers, and pasta parties, along with the friendships we made. We wish the team good luck for next season. We hope the team will continue to be successful. Thank you for making our senior year very memorable."

Kerry Brennan and friends strike a pose during one of the cheers.

Darcy and Felecia lead the team with spirit!!

Felecia belts out "Go Team!" at the top of her lungs.

MEMORIES

"My most vivid Stoneham High School memory....

... happened in my junior year. I was on the spring track team. We had a meet against Belmont. The race I was running was the J.V. 400. We got into our ready position; the gun went off, and after the race was over I had finished in first place. That was the first time I ever finished anything in first place.

John Chetwynd

... was the 1999 Halloween Dance. Five of my friends and I dressed up as The Village People. We entered the lip synching contest singing "YMCA". We rocked the house, the crowd went wild, and the people wanted an encore, but as great showmen, we declined. It was a one time thing and if you missed it, then it was your fault. We won first prize, and were treated like gods the rest of the night.

Peter Spelman

...was when I played football freshmen year. I was going to practice when I met up with a good friend I have now, Matt Geggis. Well, we all got in our pads and went out to do our thing. All of a sudden Matt asked for my help to get his helmet off of his head because it was stuck. We told Matt to stand still while Mike McCabe and I both grabbed a side and lifted up. "Geez, this thing is not coming off," Mike said, as I noticed that Matt's legs were off the ground and his neck was stretched out about 6 inches. He looked so weird that I started laughing so hard I fell to the ground. Matt, however, wasn't too happy. Finally, he got the idea to remove the side ear pads to get it off. It worked and he got it off after a half-hour only to put it back on three minutes later.

Doug Erickson

.....is from one of my soccer games. It was my senior season and we were playing Winchester. We were playing terribly and at halftime, we were down 3-0. There wasn't much of a half-time speech from our coach and everyone was feeling down, until some players took it upon themselves to pump up the team. We decide as a team to "do it for ourselves." Our spirits were up again. We came out hungry and with 20 minutes left in the game Billy Campbell got our first goal. Then a few minutes later Tucci scored. We were psyched. A couple of minutes later I got the tying goal. Our team, however, didn't want settle for a tie. With about three minutes left in the game, Domenic got the winning goal and we won. What a game!

Peter Brennan

.....when we were freshmen in Ms. Griglun's Spanish class. The class was quietly working as usual. Jennie Nocella had dropped her folder on the floor and reached over to pick it up. Upon leaning over, she grabbed the other side of the desk. As she fell over, she took the desk with her! The whole class, including Jennie, could not stop laughing as she was trapped on the floor under her desk. The story is still laughed about today.

Larissa Farnam

.....was probably the time that a few of my friends and I stole Mr. Riley's precious stuffed animal, Jungle Puppy. We wrote ransom notes and sent pictures of Jungle Puppy for months before finally returning him as a Christmas present.

Deanna Sanford

....was during Junior year chemistry with a substitute teacher. I have never seen so much chaos in one class. At any given moment a rubber stopper could go flying by your head or Eric J. might have random outbursts of nothing. To this day we don't know why the teacher decided to call Joe Jodrey "Bobby Bunsen". On occasion, our lab days and another class' lab days would collide and it would always be fun to see water balloons, nickels and Chris Plant come crashing into our room.

John Curtis

... was when my class went into Boston to see the Swan Boats. We drove to Melrose Highlands to take the commuter train into North Station. We had to walk forever up hills in the cold wind and down to the swan boats. We thought we were at the very beginning of the line, but then we found out the woman in front of us was saving the place for a school group of little kids! The ducks were at the water's edge. They were waiting to be fed. Our group had no food to feed them, but the other groups did. We walked up the State House stairs and we saw all the neat things that were there. They had lots of things that we saw like all the pictures that were on the wall. We walked to Quincy Market to get something to eat and after we ate we walked around and saw more.

Mary Ventullo

...was Kara L., April L., Pat C., Jessie S. and I pulling an all nighter and coming to school the next day looking gross and having the nurse put us to bed.

Kate Bekkenhuis

.... was during my freshman year when I was in my first play at Stoneham High School, Alice in Wonderland, in which I played a card soldier. I was pretty excited. I was an Ace of Clubs and got to fight with this cool sword thing, but that is not the point of the story. It was the first day of the infamous and dreaded Tech Week. I was wandering around the stage incoherently observing the goings-on of my fellow actors. Then there was a sudden black out. It only lasted for about a minute but in that time I noticed that the blocking tape on the edge of the stage was glowing a pale green. The lights came back on and I wandered clumsily in my big card costume to the spot where I saw the glowing. I pointed at the tape and yelled to Ms. Zieff, the director, "Why does this tape glow?" She barely glanced up when she answered "to keep actors from falling off the stage in the blackout." She looked back to her notes. In the next short blackout I put my foot out daringly past the glow on the edge of the stage. BAM! The next thing I knew the lights were up and I was in a tangled heap in the pit below the stage. Of course the others asked if I was o.k and after I answered "yes" we all had a good laugh. Since then this story has gone down in drama club history. And though it made me appear kind of stupid I'm still happy; it's like my one time of shining glory.

Amanda Norden

....was going in to the Hard Rock Cafe for my birthday junior year with all my boys, and everyone staying over my house that night. But even more memorable was Mike Clark leaving my house at 3:00 A.M., because he said he had to go "do stuff." What he had to do, we still do not know, and probably will never find out!

Matt Rogers

...was when Joe Jodery gave his speech to be senior class president and at the end of his speech said "Eat Mo' Pie!"

T.J. Sweeney

...was when Joseph Jodery ran for president and made me proud.

Pat Palermo

...was during another boring summer evening in Stoneham. Lauren Surette, Danielle Izzicupo and I were driving around aimlessly, and we somehow ended up in Wakefield. Driving through random streets thinking of something to do to entertain ourselves, I came up with an ingenious plan. It happened to be trash collection day in Wakefield so I suggested, "Hey guys, why don't we collect some random things from people's trash and put them on Mr. Serino's lawn!" Danielle and Lauren loved the idea, and in a matter of minutes we found ourselves scavenging up and down side streets of Wakefield for crazy objects to put on Mr. Serino's lawn. It was a success! We ended up with a weed wacker, an old bike, a wooden door, a bucket of gardening pots, and a dusty mirror. We attempted to move a huge porcelain sink, but the sink's weight was much too overwhelming for our girlish strength. We ventured over to Mr. Serino's house, and discreetly cruised down his street. We parked a good distance from his house. We sat in the car for a second, planning out the positioning of each object on his lawn, and knew it was party time! We placed the wooden door against one of the trees on his lawn, we put the weed wacker against his mail box, the bicycle on his doorstep, the bucket and pots scattered about the grass, and the dusty mirror against another tree and we personalized it by writing our names in the dust patches. We ran back to Danielle's car quickly, but not so quietly for we were laughing uncontrollably. Driving away we decided to end our prank by continuously beeping until Mr. Serino came out of his house to observe our masterpiece. He came outside a little confused, and we screamed and waved as we drove away. This night was one that will stick out in my mind forever. Not only will what we did always be prominent in my mind, but the laughter and and happiness we felt that evening will be remembered most.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Bonnie

Ryan Picazio

FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS!

"I was set free! I dissolved in the sea, became white sails and flying spray, became beauty and rhythm, became moonlight and the ship and the high dim-starred sky! I belonged, without past or future, within peace and unity, and a wild joy, within something greater than my own life, or the life of Man, to life itself!" -- Eugene O'Neill

With love and encouragement, Mom, Dad, and Steven

Michael Porcaro

WAY TO GO, MIKE!

We are so very proud of you. Congratulations and good luck at WPI. We know you will succeed at whatever you do.

CANTINA ITALIANA

The tastes that make the North End famous

A long-time favorite with locals and visitors alike, Cantina Italiana serves up some of the best traditional Italian cuisine in Boston. Opened in 1931, Cantina Italiana is one of the oldest restaurants in the North End, and even today the restaurant continues to maintain the high-quality standards in both food and service that were begun over 65 years ago. Cantina Italiana's warm, charming atmosphere along with cozy booths make the restaurant the ideal spot *for a comfortable, relaxed dining experience. Specialties of the house include a wide assortment of appetizers and pastas as well as chicken, fish and veal specialties, including the classics chicken, veal or eggplant parmigiana.
